Save the Date! 4th Annual Putt Putt, Saturday, February 1st, 6:00 pm

Eddie and Casey are hard at work designing our indoor course along with creating new challenges for our members. We will have our two-person putt putt championship starting at 7:30pm and for those who have participated in years past, you know how competitive some of our members can be!!

The dress is casual, Eddie will provide the clubs and the cost to participate is zero!! This is a fun evening designed for our members to have a chance to mix and mingle with fellow members while enjoying plenty of drink specials to assist you with your perfect putt. Chef Rick has promised dinner specials that are sure to please all and reservations are encouraged. If you don't want to participate but would like to cheer us on, spectators are welcome.

Dashing through the Snow!

Big Creek and the Mountain Home area were blanketed by an inch of sleet followed by 8" of snow, December 5th. A group of residents and their children made the most of the slope to the east side of Big Creek Parkway for some long sled runs.

BOOK OF THE MONTH

A Team of Rivals by Doris Kearns Goodwin

Examines Lincoln's relationships with three men he selected for his cabinet, all of whom were opponents for the Republican nomination in 1860; William H. Seward, Salmon P. Chase, and Edward Bates. These men all accomplished, nationally known, and presidential, originally disdained Lincoln for his backwoods upbringing and lack of experience, and were shocked and humiliated at losing to this relatively obscure Illinois lawyer. Yet Lincoln not only convinced them to join his administration - Seward as secretary of state, Chase as secretary of the treasury, and Bates as attorney general - he ultimately gained their admiration and respect as well.
