

BIG CREEK

GOLF & COUNTRY CLUB

Happy New Year

We have begun reshaping and re-sodding several bunker slopes like this one on #9 (left), as well as a project to add drainage in front of first target green (red flag) on the driving range (right).

Twelve members of the Big Creek Women's Golf Association enjoyed the annual Christmas Luncheon at Big Creek on Saturday, December 12. They visited, ate lunch, and then had a fun gift exchange.

Back row (l-r): Nancy Brentlinger, Corrine Johnson, Judy Nosari, Sherryl Adams, Sharon Butler, Penne Wooldridge, Martha Sanford, Janet Wood. Front row (l-r): Brenda Nelson, Wanda Kelley, Pam Johnson, Carolyn Helvey.

CLUBHOUSE NEWS

Our Sunday brunch will be buffet only now through the month of March from 11:00 - 2:00. It's the perfect day to gather a group and join us for a fabulous meal. Reservations are always encouraged.

January is the beginning of a new quarter. As a reminder, our food minimums are $50.00 per month/$150.00 per quarter and EXCLUDE tax and tip.

We would like to take this opportunity to thank everyone that contributed to the staff's holiday fund. Your thoughtfulness and generosity was greatly appreciated.

Painting with Panache

Thursday, January 14
@ 5:30, $40.00 at the door

Painting with Panache will be on Thursday, January 14 @ 5:30 sharp. The price is $40.00 at the door and includes a glass of wine and all art supplies needed. It's a great night to gather your friends and join us for a fun and festive evening.

Book of the Month

Wednesday, January 27

All The Light We Cannot See

by Anthony Doerr.

Intwined WWII story of the blind daughter of a widowed locksmith at a Paris museum and an orphaned boy in a German coal-mining town.