Wine of the Month

Root One - Chile Carmenera
$5 glass/ $25.00 bottle

After years of being thought extinct, Carmenera was rediscovered in Chile in 1994. The lush flavors and soft tannins of Root: 1 Carmenera are proof that the "lost grape of Bordeaux" has finally found its perfect home.

Appellation: Colchagua Valley, Chile
Winemaker: Sergio Hormazabal
Tasting Notes: Deep red in color with gentle tannins and rich flavors of plum, blackberry and spice.
Food Pairings: Root One Carmenera pairs well with pasta dishes, vegetable soup, spicy entrees, and grilled meats. Its unique versatility is a perfect match for ingredients such as garlic, bell peppers, fresh herbs, and eggplant.
