GOLF NEWS

On Monday, September 11, the boys golf team from Mountain Home High School spent an hour from 4-5:00 performing some great volunteer work for course maintenance. They picked up broken tees around tee boxes, filled divots on the tee boxes and fairways with sand, repaired ball marks on greens, picked up trash, and raked bunkers. A big thank you to Coach Dell Leonard and Assistant Coach Lou Wood for organizing this.

The MHHS boys and girls teams have practiced and competed in matches at Big Creek since right after our opening in the year 2000. This year we have also been pleased to welcome the Cotter High School and Flippin High School golf teams to our club.

USGA - ANNOUNCES 2018 U.S. AMATEUR QUALIFYING WILL RETURN TO BIG CREEK

The Club received notification that we have been chosen as the 2018 U.S. Amateur Qualifying site for Arkansas which will be held on Tuesday, July 10, 2018. The qualifier is a 36-hole event in which the players must walk, but caddies can ride in a cart. Qualifiers in 2018 advance to the U.S. Amateur at Pebble Beach Golf Links / Pebble Beach Resorts August 13-19, 2018. Spyglass Hill Golf Course will also co-host the championship during medal play.

The last time Big Creek hosted this qualifier was August 2010, and the two qualifiers were Alex L. Carpenter and newly-minted (just this past week) PGA TOUR member Austin Cook of Jonesboro, Arkansas. Pictured is Austin holding up his PGA Tour card last week and then (in red hat) here at Big Creek on August 9, 2010.
