STUDENT RECORDS AND CONFIDENTIALITY (FERPA)

1. Purpose

Arkansas State University will comply with the Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act (FERPA).

2. Definitions

Arkansas State University. Arkansas State University (ASU) means all the campuses within the Arkansas State University System, now and in the future.

Student. Student means an individual who attends or has attended classes at ASU. This policy does not apply to the records of applicants for admission who are not accepted to ASU nor does it apply to applicants who are accepted but choose not to attend ASU.

Education Record. Education records are those records, files, documents, and other materials which contain information directly related to a student and are maintained by ASU or a person acting for ASU.

Directory Information. Directory Information is designated to be the student's name; local and permanent physical addresses; electronic mail addresses; telephone listings; photographs and electronic images; date and place of birth; major field of study; participation in officially recognized activities and sports; weight and height of members of athletic teams; dates of attendance; degrees and awards received; and the most recent previous educational agency or institution attended by the student.

3. Arkansas State University Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act Policy

The Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act requires that institutions of higher education strictly protect the privacy rights of all students who are or who have been in attendance. Information contained in the student's education records can be shared only with those persons or entities specified within the Act. The law also provides that students have the right to review their education records for the purpose of making any necessary corrections. The Office of the Registrar maintains a copy of the full text of FERPA, posts electronic information on FERPA, and processes all FERPA requests and challenges. Arkansas State University will utilize the following process to implement the provisions of the Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act.

4. Process

A. Disclosure of Education Records

I. Disclosure with Student Consent. A student may consent in writing to disclosure of education records. The student's written consent must be signed, dated, and specify which records are to be disclosed, to whom, and for what purpose. The consent must be delivered to the office of the Registrar. The student may retract the consent in writing at any time. Proper proof of identity may be required by the Registrar's office before consent is retracted.

II. Disclosure without Student Consent. ASU may disclose education records without the student's written consent to any school official within the institution with a legitimate educational interest. School officials include administrators, supervisors, faculty members, instructors, support staff, members of the Board of Trustees, persons with whom ASU has contracted for special tasks (e.g., National Student Clearinghouse), and university committee members. A school official has a legitimate educational interest if the official needs to review an education record in order to fulfill his or her professional responsibility. School officials of ASU are considered to be within the institution for the purposes of FERPA and may exchange education records without student consent so long as they have a legitimate educational interest.

Disclosure without student consent may also be made to other persons and entities as allowed by FERPA.

Faculty sponsors of registered honor societies may have access to student education records for the sole purpose of determining eligibility for membership on the basis that they are acting in an official university capacity that is integral to the educational function of ASU.

The parents of students may exercise rights under FERPA if the student is claimed as a dependent by the parents for income tax purposes. Dependency must be proven by submission of a copy of income tax returns.

B. Disclosure of Directory Information

Directory information may be disclosed to any person or entity without student consent unless the student submits a completed request for non-disclosure of directory information form to the Office of the Registrar. If a student elects not to allow disclosure of directory information, ASU cannot share information regarding the student with any person or entity including prospective employers, licensing agencies, government agencies, the media, and others. The student may retract the directory information non-disclosure in writing at any time. Proper proof of identity may be required by the Registrar's office before the directory information non-disclosure is retracted.

C. Inspection, Review, and Correction of Education Records

Students have the right to inspect and review their education records except for specific exclusions contained within the Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act. A student should contact the Office of the Registrar to arrange for inspection, review, and correction of an education record. The Registrar may charge a fee for copies of any education records.

D. Ownership of Education Records

Education records are the property of ASU. Education records, including transcripts and diplomas, will not be released to any student who has a delinquent financial obligation to the University.

Students who believe that their records contain inaccurate, incorrect, or misleading information or that their privacy rights have been violated may discuss their problems informally with the Office of the Registrar. If the decisions made are in agreement with the student's requests, the appropriate records will be amended. If not, the student has the right to file a formal complaint with the Associate Vice Chancellor of Student Affairs on the ASUMH campus. For more information on student rights under the Act, contact FERPA on the Internet at the following Web address: <http://www2.ed.gov/policy/gen/guid/fpco/ferpa/index.html>.

POLICIES AND PROCEDURES

ALCOHOL POLICY

ASUMH seeks to maintain an educational and working environment free from the influence of alcohol.

The unlawful manufacturing, distributing, dispensing, possessing or using of alcoholic beverages on any property owned or maintained by Arkansas State University - Mountain Home or as a part of university activity is strictly prohibited. Possession of any alcoholic beverages in educational facilities or recreational facilities is prohibited unless specifically authorized by the Chancellor for special events only and confirmed by written agreement setting out the terms controlling the use of university property for the special event. Under no circumstance shall any student or student group be authorized to possess alcoholic beverages in any educational facility or recreational facility. The sole exception to student possession of alcohol as set out above shall be for students of lawful age who attend a special event authorized by the Chancellor. This policy is adopted to comply with all current laws and regulations relating to the Federal Drug-Free Schools and Communities Act and the Drug-Free Workplace Act.

Students who violate this policy are subject to appropriate disciplinary action, up to and including dismissal. The university may refer violations to the appropriate state and federal authorities for criminal prosecution.

ATTENDANCE REQUIREMENTS

Regular attendance is essential in a college-level course. Instructors monitor attendance in seated classes by checking roll and completion of coursework. Online class attendance is based on participation in the class as evidenced by students turning in assignments, participating in discussion boards, or corresponding via email. Excessive absences may be penalized, including failure of the course, at the discretion of the instructor. Make-up work is at the discretion of the instructor.

Students should follow the appropriate withdrawal process through the Office of Admissions. Failure to attend class does not constitute an official withdrawal. Students should be aware that non-attendance could affect financial aid resulting in loss of financial aid eligibility and possible repayment of funds awarded.

When an absence is unavoidable, students should always notify instructors. In some cases the instructor may notify the Registrar's Office requesting an administrative withdrawal after an excessive number of absences. Students who do not attend class the first 10 days of the semester will be administratively withdrawn.

Students should always check with the instructor or the course syllabus regarding the number of absences allowed and requirements for late or missed assignments. Students must utilize their available absences for any cause which requires them to miss class including, but not being limited to, illness, emergency, or religious observances.

COMPUTER RESOURCES AND REGULATIONS

Information Technology resources are provided to support the academic, research, service, and campus life components of ASUMH. These resources are for the sole use of ASUMH students, faculty, staff and other authorized users to accomplish the mission of the university.

Rights and Responsibilities

Arkansas State University - Mountain Home expects that users of campus computing and network facilities will respect the rights of other users as well as the integrity of the systems and related physical resources. Since electronic information is volatile and easily reproduced, users must exercise care in acknowledging and respecting the work of others through strict adherence to software licensing agreements and copyright laws. Because Arkansas State University - Mountain Home is a state agency, all information stored within or transmitted through systems and/or networks is considered public record and subject to disclosure under the Arkansas Freedom of Information Act unless exempt under the law.

Users do not own accounts on university computers, but are granted the privilege of exclusive use. The Electronic Communications Privacy Act authorizes system administrators and other university employees to access user data, activity, and information. By utilizing ASUMH computing and network resources, students give consent to accessing and monitoring by system administrators of any electronic communications, including stored and transmitted information, in order to enforce the ASU System Appropriate Use Policy or to protect the integrity of computer systems or the rights or property of the university. System administrators may examine or make copies of information and activities that are suspected of misuse or that have been corrupted or damaged.

User files may be subject to search by law enforcement agencies under court order if such files contain information that may be used as evidence in a court of law.

Computer and network usage and this policy are subject to the ASU System Appropriate Use of Technology Resources Policy, as approved by the Board of Trustees. This policy can be found at the following link:
<http://www.asusystem.edu/about/policies>.

Enforcement

Minor infractions of this policy, when accidental, such as consuming excessive resources or overloading computer systems, are generally resolved informally by the person administering the accounts or network. This may be done through electronic mail or in-person discussion and education. Repeated infractions or misconduct may result in the temporary or permanent loss of computer access privileges or the modification of those privileges. More serious violations include, but are not limited to unauthorized use of computer resources, attempts to steal passwords or data, unauthorized use or copying of licensed software, repeated harassment or threatening behavior. In addition, offenders may be referred to their sponsoring advisor, department, employer or other appropriate university office for further action. If the individual is a student, the matter may be referred to the Associate Vice Chancellor of Student Affairs for disciplinary action. Any offense that violates local, state or federal laws may result in the immediate loss of all university computing privileges and will be referred to appropriate university offices and/or other law enforcement authorities.

Standards

Conduct that violates this policy includes, but is not limited to, the activities in the following list:

- Unauthorized use of a computer account
- Using the campus network to gain unauthorized access to any computer systems
- Connecting unauthorized equipment to the campus network
- Unauthorized attempts to circumvent data protection schemes or uncover security loopholes. This includes creating and/or running programs that are designed to identify security loopholes and/or decrypt intentionally secure data
- Knowingly or carelessly performing an act that will interfere with the normal operation of computers, terminals, peripherals or networks
- Knowingly or carelessly running or installing on any computer system or network, or giving to another user a program intended to damage or to place excessive load on a computer system or network. This includes, but is not limited to, programs known as computer viruses, Trojan Horses and worms
- Deliberately wasting/overloading computer resources, such as printing too many copies of a document
- Violating terms of applicable software licensing agreements or copyright laws
- Violating copyright laws and their fair use provisions through inappropriate downloading, reproduction, or dissemination of copyrighted text, images, multimedia, etc.
- Forging the identity of a user or machine in an electronic communication
- Transmitting or reproducing materials that are slanderous or defamatory in nature or that otherwise violate existing laws or university regulations
- Initiating or propagating electronic chain letters. Inappropriate mass mailing. This includes multiple mailings to newsgroups, mailing lists or individuals, e.g. "spamming," "flooding," or "bombing"
- Displaying obscene or sexually harassing images or text in a public computer facility or location that can be in view of others
- Using university resources for commercial activity such as creating or advertising products or services for sale
- Using electronic mail to harass or threaten others. This includes sending repeated, unwanted e-mail to another user
- Attempting to monitor or tamper with another user's electronic communications, or reading, copying, changing or deleting another user's files or software without the explicit agreement of the owner

DRUG POLICY

ASUMH seeks to maintain an educational and working environment free from the influence of unlawful drugs.

The unlawful manufacturing, distributing, dispensing, possessing or using of a controlled substance on any property owned or maintained by ASUMH or as a part of university activity is strictly prohibited. This policy is adopted to comply with all current laws and regulations relating to the Federal Drug-Free Schools and Communities Act and the Drug-Free Workplace Act. Students who violate this policy are subject to appropriate disciplinary action, up to and including dismissal. The university may refer violations to the appropriate state and federal authorities for criminal prosecution.

MEDICAL AMNESTY POLICY

The safety and welfare of students is a University priority, and at times, students may need immediate medical assistance. However, students may be reluctant to get help because of concerns that their own behavior may be a violation of the student conduct code. To minimize any hesitation students or student organizations may have in obtaining help due to these concerns, the University has instituted a medical amnesty policy. This policy is applicable to the following parties: 1) a student requesting medical assistance for oneself; 2) a student requesting medical assistance for another person; 3) a student for whom medical assistance was provided.

When responding to any alcohol or drug violations, the University will consider a student's decision to request medical assistance, and in most cases, view the act of seeking medical assistance as good judgment, therefore not deserving of the typical sanctions. At a minimum, students or student organizations should make an anonymous report that would put the student in need in contact with professional help. Examples where this policy may apply include:

1. A student is reluctant to call an ambulance when a friend becomes unconscious following excessive consumption of alcohol because the reporting student is under the age of 21 and was also consuming alcohol.
2. A student is reluctant to report that he/she has been sexually assaulted because he/she had been consuming alcohol and is under the age of 21. It is in the best interest of this community that victims choose to report to University officials. To encourage reporting incidents of sexual misconduct, the University pursues a procedure of offering victims of sexual misconduct limited immunity from being charged for any policy violations related to the sexual misconduct incident.

Although the University may choose not to impose disciplinary sanctions, the University may mandate educational options (such as alcohol and other drug assessments and attendance to alcohol education programs) in such cases. Once a student receives medical amnesty, any future amnesty is at the discretion of the Vice Chancellor for Student Affairs or his/her designee. The Associate Vice Chancellor of Student Affairs or his/her designee also have discretion to determine that this policy does not apply in more serious situations, including criminal possession of drugs, property damage, and acts of violence.

The Vice Chancellor for Academic Affairs will be responsible for the enforcement of the classroom and library food and drink regulations, and the Vice Chancellor for Administrative Affairs will be responsible for all other areas.

INCLEMENT WEATHER

Students are responsible for maintaining progress in courses and establishing contact with instructors during inclement weather.

All students are encouraged to register for emergency alerts from the campus via the emergency alert system(. The registration form is available in the ASUMH portal and offers text, call, and email services to notify students of emergency situations on campus.

ASUMH does not normally cancel classes or close offices because of hazardous driving conditions. However, the obligation to provide services to the citizens of the community must be balanced with the risk of danger to students and employees. It is, therefore, appropriate that guidelines reflect the safety needs of our students, employees, and citizens.

The university remains open for academic classes and all other services during inclement weather except in extreme circumstances as determined by the Chancellor. However, students are encouraged to use good judgment in deciding whether to drive to campus or other education sites during inclement weather.

The inclement weather announcement will be posted on the ASUMH Website, www.asumh.edu, and the ASUMH Facebook page unless there are power outages or other circumstances preventing the posting. Regional and local news media that publicize the cancelling of classes and/or closing of offices will be notified. The following radio stations will be notified: KTLO-97.9 FM in Mountain Home, KCTT-101.7 in Mountain Home and Yellville, KPFM-105.5, KKTZ - 93.5, KOMT - 107.5 in Mountain Home and surrounding areas.

If weather changes during the evening, the instructors involved have the discretion to end classes early.

SEXUAL DISCRIMINATION

TITLE IX OF EDUCATION AMENDMENTS

Title IX is a comprehensive federal law that prohibits discrimination on the basis of sex in any federally funded education program or activity.

Title IX benefits both males and females, and is at the heart of efforts to create gender equitable schools. The law requires educational institutions to maintain policies, practices and programs that do not discriminate against anyone based on sex. Under this law, males and females are expected to receive fair and equitable treatment in all areas of public schooling including recruitment, admissions, educational programs, and activities, course offerings and access, counseling, financial aid, employment assistance, facilities and housing, health and insurance benefits, marital and parental status, scholarships, sexual discrimination and athletics. Arkansas State University has designated a Title IX coordinator for each campus. Any incidence of sexual discrimination including sexual harassment or sexual violence should be reported to the Title IX coordinator who will take prompt action to secure a full and equitable review. In the event the sexual discrimination allegation is against the Title IX coordinator, the report should be made to the Office of General Counsel. Contact information for each campus is located on the respective campus's website.

SEXUAL DISCRIMINATION

Arkansas State University is committed to providing an educational and work environment for its students, faculty, and staff that is free from sexual discrimination including sexual harassment, sexual assault, sexual violence, stalking, domestic violence, and dating violence. No form of sexual discrimination will be tolerated.

It is important to preserve all evidence of sexual discrimination, especially if the discrimination is also a criminal offense, such as sexual assault, stalking, domestic violence, or dating violence.

Each campus has a Title IX Coordinator who is charged with investigating certain allegations of sexual harassment, sexual assault, stalking, domestic violence and dating violence. Employees with supervisory responsibilities, including deans, vice chancellors, department chairs, faculty, student conduct personnel, human resources personnel, athletic administrators, coaches, and university police personnel must report incidents of sexual discrimination either observed by them or reported to them to the Title IX Coordinator. The Title IX Coordinator will conduct a prompt, thorough, and objective investigation of those claims which meet the requirements of a Title IX offense, and will refer other claims of sexual discrimination to the campus Human Resources department.

If sexual discrimination has occurred, appropriate remedial action commensurate with the severity of the offense will be taken up to and including termination. All reports, complaints, and investigations are treated with discretion and confidentiality is maintained to the extent allowed by law.

The Title IX Coordinator or Human Resources representative, as applicable, will notify the appropriate law enforcement agency of all reports of sexual assault, stalking, domestic violence or dating violence. The person who has allegedly been subjected to sexual discrimination may also contact law enforcement and may seek an order of protection, no contact order, or similar order. The Title IX Coordinator or Human Resources representative will assist the person alleging to be subjected to sexual discrimination and the person alleged to have committed sexual discrimination with locating resources for counseling, medical treatment, legal advice, or other services.

Each campus within the Arkansas State University System provides educational materials and programs on sexual discrimination. Contact the Human Resources Department or Title IX Coordinator for information on awareness and prevention of sexual discrimination.

The University reserves the right to take those legally permitted supportive measures it deems necessary in response to an allegation of sexual discrimination in order to protect individuals' rights and personal safety. Such supportive measures may include, but are not limited to: modification of campus living or employment arrangements; interim suspensions from campus following an individualized assessment that determines, based on the allegations, that the person accused of the sexual discrimination poses an immediate threat to the physical health or safety of another person; no contact or communications requirements; leave with or without pay; and, reporting the matter to law enforcement. Persons reporting allegations of sexual discrimination must follow the Staff Grievance Procedure or the Title IX Grievance Procedure, as applicable.

RETALIATORY ACTION PROHIBITED

Retaliation against a person who files a charge of discrimination, participates in an investigation, refuses to participate in an investigation, or opposes an unlawful employment practice is prohibited by law and Arkansas State University. Any person who needs further explanation or who believes he or she has been retaliated against should contact the Human Resources Department.

TITLE IX GRIEVANCE PROCEDURE

GRIEVANCE ISSUES

The Title IX Grievance Procedure applies to allegations of sexual discrimination, including sexual harassment, sexual assault, stalking, domestic violence, and dating violence, occurring in the United States and in an educational program or activity of any campus within the Arkansas State University System, which is made by a person participating in or attempting to participate in an educational program or activity of the campus.

Sexual Harassment under Title IX is defined as unwelcome gender-based verbal or physical conduct and occurs when:

1. Submission to, or toleration of, such conduct is made a term or condition of instruction, employment, or participation in other university activities;
2. Submission to, or rejection of, such conduct is used as a basis for employment or education decisions affecting the individual; or
3. Such conduct is severe, pervasive, and objectionably offensive such that it has the effect of unreasonably interfering with an individual's education or employment performance or creating an intimidating, hostile, or offensive university environment.

Sexual assault occurs when a person is subjected to an unwanted sexual act without consent. Sexual acts occur without consent when they are performed by force, in response to a threat, against a person's will, or where a person is incapable of giving consent due to minority, intellectual impairment, or use of mind altering substances such as drugs or alcohol.

Stalking is defined as engaging in a course of conduct directed at a specific person that would cause a reasonable person to (A) fear for his or her safety or the safety of others; or (B) suffer substantial emotional distress.

Domestic Violence is defined as felony or misdemeanor crimes of violence committed by a current or former spouse of the victim, by a person with whom the victim shares a child in common, by a person who is cohabitating with or has cohabitated with the victim as a spouse, by a person similarly situated to a spouse of the victim under the domestic or family violence laws of the State of Arkansas, or by any other person against an adult or youth victim who is protected from that person's acts under the domestic or family violence laws of the State of Arkansas.

Dating Violence is defined as violence committed by a person (A) who is or has been in a social relationship of a romantic or intimate nature with the victim; and (B) where the existence of such a relationship shall be determined based on a consideration of the following factors: (i) the length of the relationship, (ii) the type of relationship, and (iii) the frequency of interaction between the persons involved in the relationship.

REPORT OF SEXUAL DISCRIMINATION

Any employee, student, or visitor participating in or attempting to participate in an educational program or activity offered by a campus in the Arkansas State University System who believes he or she has been subjected to sexual discrimination should report the incident to the applicable campus's Title IX Coordinator utilizing the reporting form available on the Title IX web site for the campus. Employees with supervisory responsibilities including deans, vice chancellors, department chairs, faculty, student conduct personnel, human resources personnel, athletic administrators, coaches, and university police personnel must report incidents of sexual discrimination either observed by them or reported to them to the Title IX Coordinator. In the event the sexual discrimination allegation is against the Title IX Coordinator, the report form should be submitted to the Office of General Counsel. Reporting may be done by telephone, fax, email, or a hard copy communication, and may be submitted during or outside of business hours. In order to ensure timely investigation and remedy, a Title IX grievance should be activated within sixty (60) days from the time the events leading to the complaint occurred as delay in reporting impedes the ability to achieve prompt resolution. Reports of sexual assault, sexual violence, stalking, domestic violence and dating violence will be reported to law enforcement authorities.

Criminal investigations by any law enforcement agencies or investigations conducted under the Faculty, Staff, or Student Handbooks may occur simultaneously with a Title IX discrimination grievance.

TITLE IX COORDINATOR'S RESPONSE

A. Upon receipt of a report of an allegation of sexual discrimination, the Title IX Coordinator will contact the person alleged to have been subjected to the sexual discrimination (hereinafter referred to as a "Complainant") within two (2) business days. During the initial contact, the Title IX Coordinator shall notify the Complainant of available supportive measures with or without the filing of a formal complaint, the process for filing a formal complaint, and the potential code of conduct violations for knowingly providing false information. If the Complainant decides to file a formal complaint, the Complainant must submit a written and signed statement of the facts surrounding the allegations sufficient to allow the Title IX Coordinator to determine whether:

1. the actions to allegedly have occurred meet the definition of sexual harassment, sexual assault, dating violence, domestic violence, or stalking;

2. the actions alleged to have occurred were perpetrated against someone who was engaged in or attempting to engage in an educational activity or program offered by the campus;
3. the actions alleged to have occurred were perpetrated by someone who is a student or employee of the campus, if the person's identity is known;
4. the acts alleged to have occurred took place against a person located in the United States; and,
5. the acts alleged to have occurred took place in a location or under circumstances over which the campus exercises substantial control, including but not limited to on campus buildings, buildings owned or operated by registered student organizations, or during off campus class events.

The formal complaint may be submitted electronically or in hard copy format. If the Complainant determines that he or she does not wish to pursue a formal complaint, the Title IX Coordinator shall assist the Complainant with appropriate continued supportive measures, and shall make a determination as to whether or not, based on the information that the Title IX Complainant has at that time, the Title IX Coordinator will sign a formal complaint. The Title IX Coordinator shall only sign a formal complaint over the objection of a Complainant in the event that, based on the available facts at the time, failure to do so would be clearly unreasonable and would amount to deliberate indifference.

B. Following the receipt of the formal complaint, the Title IX Coordinator will send a Notice of Allegations to both the Complainant, and the person alleged to have perpetrated the sexual discrimination (hereinafter referred to as the "Respondent"). The Notice of Allegations will:

1. set forth the allegations outlined in the formal complaint;
2. advise the parties on the Title IX Grievance Procedure, including their right to not participate;
3. set forth the available supportive measures for the parties, which will be equitably available to each;
4. outline the availability of and describe the informal resolution procedure;
5. notify the parties that they have the right to have an advisor of their choice, who may but does not have to be an attorney, and that the advisor may attend but not directly participate in any meetings or interviews throughout the investigation;

6. notify the parties that they are required to have an advisor for the purposes of the hearing, and the availability of an advisor to be provided by the campus in the event that either party cannot obtain one;
7. state the standard of evidence used in the Title IX Grievance procedure is preponderance of the evidence;
8. state that the parties each have the right to inspect, review, and respond to all information and evidence gathered, which will be presented to the parties promptly after its receipt by the Title IX Coordinator or investigator;
9. inform the parties of the potential code of conduct violations that can be pursued in the event that a party knowingly gives false statements or evidence; and,
10. state clearly that the Respondent is presumed "not responsible" unless and until there is a finding of responsibility at the conclusion of the hearing.

C. Immediately following the issuance of the Notice of Allegations, the Title IX Coordinator will review the formal complaint to verify that the conduct complained of meets the definition of sexual harassment, sexual assault, domestic violence, dating violence, or stalking; that it occurred in the campus's education program or activity; and, it occurred against a person in the United States. Following the verification of this information, the Title IX Coordinator will take one of the following actions:

1. If the allegations in the formal complaint fails to meet any of these requirements, it must be dismissed under the Title IX Grievance Procedure, but can be pursued under the Staff Grievance Procedure, or the campus's code of conduct. The parties will be notified simultaneously in writing of this action.

2. If the formal complaint meets the requirements, but: the Complainant requests in writing to withdraw the allegations or formal complaint; the Respondent is no longer enrolled or employed by the campus; or, specific circumstances prevent the Title IX Coordinator from gathering enough evidence to make a determination, the Title IX Coordinator may dismiss the Title IX investigation. In such an instance, the Title IX Coordinator shall notify both parties simultaneously in writing of the dismissal of the formal complaint, and the reason for the dismissal. Either party may appeal this dismissal to the Director of Human Resources. The appeal must be transmitted within five business (5) days of the issuance of the decision by the Title IX Coordinator. The Director of Human Resources shall review the decision, the rationale for the decision, and the appeal, and shall make the final determination as to whether the Title IX Discrimination Grievance shall be permitted to proceed to investigation, and shall transmit that decision, simultaneously and in writing, to both parties within five (5) business days of the receipt of the appeal.

3. If the formal complaint meets the requirements, and the investigation isn't dismissed as permitted in Section C.2., the formal complaint shall proceed to the investigation. If the formal complaint meets the requirement set forth in Section A. herein, the allegations of the formal complaint may only be addressed under the Title IX Grievance Procedure.

D. Within forty-five (45) business days after receipt of a formal complaint, the Title IX Coordinator, or investigator, will conduct a full and impartial investigation, considering all available inculpatory and exculpatory evidence, by: interviewing the complainant, the respondent, and any witnesses identified throughout the investigation; considering any expert testimony offered by either party; and, by reviewing any documentary evidence submitted by either party or obtained by the Title IX Coordinator or investigator.

The Title IX Coordinator or investigator will:

1. not seek or consider any evidence which is protected by a legally acknowledged privilege without the written consent of the party who holds the privilege;
2. not consider evidence of the Complainant's sexual history or predisposition, unless offered to prove that someone else committed the acts the Respondent is accused of, or specific incident between the Complainant and Respondent are offered to prove consent;
3. make no credibility assessments based solely on a party's status as a complainant or respondent;
4. provide any party requested to attend a meeting or interview with written notice of the day, time, location, invited participants, and purpose of the meeting or interview no less than two (2) business days in advance of the proposed meeting;
5. make ongoing determinations, throughout the investigation, regarding the appropriateness of available supportive measures, such as: suspension from employment with or without pay; suspension from classes following an individualized determination that based upon the allegations the Respondent poses an immediate threat to a faculty member, staff member, or student; issuance of a no contact directive to both parties;

reassignment of job duties; counseling; campus escort services; increased security and monitoring certain areas on campus; or, changing class or classroom assignments. If immediate action is required, the Title IX Coordinator shall work with the appropriate administrator to implement supportive measures.

- E. After studying all the pertinent facts and documents, carefully examining any policies involved, and discussing the issue with the parties and witnesses, the Title IX Coordinator shall either:
1. propose an informal resolution procedure be utilized to the parties which, if accepted, shall be documented in writing, and, if successful, shall conclude the investigation, or, if unsuccessful, shall result in the investigation proceeding towards a formal hearing, with all informal resolution proceeding documents being maintained and submitted to the Hearing Committee: or,
 2. gather all evidence collected throughout the investigation that is directly related to the allegations in the complaint and simultaneously submit, in electronic or hard copy, it to the parties and their advisors, if any. The parties shall have ten (10) business days to review and respond to all evidence provided. The Title IX Coordinator or investigator will review and consider the response(s) of the parties before completing its investigative report. The investigative report shall be a formal written report which sets forth:
 - a. the timeline of the investigation, beginning with the formal complaint, and includes all notices given, meetings or interview conducted, and communications received;
 - b. the allegations contained in the formal complaint;
 - c. the evidence relevant to the allegations gathered throughout the investigation; and,
 - d. the specific form of sexual discrimination the Respondent is alleged to have engaged in.
- F. Following the completion of the investigative report, the Title IX Coordinator will simultaneously submit, in electronic or hard copy, the investigative report to both parties and their advisors, if any. Both parties shall have a period of ten (10) business days to review the investigative report before the hearing date. Both parties have the option to submit a written response to the investigative report. The investigative report and any written responses by either party shall be submitted to the Title IX Hearing Committee.

- G. Timelines may be extended by the Title IX Coordinator in extenuating circumstances and for good cause shown.
- H. Allegations of sexual discrimination which meet the requirements of a Title IX offense and which are made by a student against a staff or faculty member shall not be resolved by the informal resolution procedure.

Conduct referrals in regard to Sexual Discrimination should be referred to the Title IX Coordinator in the Office of Student Support Services. (page 16)

2. Upon the receipt of a Conduct Referral, the Associate Vice Chancellor of Student Affairs or designee will determine if sufficient information is present for student misconduct charges to be filed against the alleged violator. If charges are filed, written notification will be delivered by hand or by registered mail, return receipt requested, within five working days of the initial report of the alleged violation. The Associate Vice Chancellor of Student Affairs or designee will determine the severity and whether immediate temporary measures are warranted to ensure campus safety. If warranted, these measures will be implemented immediately with notification to the Chancellor.

Any student who fails to attend a scheduled Case Resolution meeting will have a hold placed on institutional records until he or she has met with the Associate Vice Chancellor of Student Affairs or designee and reached a resolution or until a Formal Conduct Hearing has been completed. This hold will prevent the student from accessing all services including but not limited to, requesting a transcript, registering for class, completing a degree, and borrowing materials from the library or utilizing student support services.

3. After studying all the pertinent information and documents, carefully examining any policies involved, and discussing the issue with the alleged violator and witnesses (if appropriate), the Associate Vice Chancellor of Student Affairs shall decide if the evidence indicates that a violation has occurred. The Associate Vice Chancellor of Student Affairs shall determine which of the following is an appropriate consequence:

 - b. prepare a formal written report that will be hand delivered or mailed to the student within 3 working days of the decision. A copy of this report will be placed in the student's discipline file indicating the student was officially warned. If the student accepts responsibility, this shall conclude the case. If the student does not accept responsibility or does not agree with the written report, the student has the right to appeal. The appeal process is outlined in the following pages.
 - c. assign appropriate consequence and prepare a formal written report that will be placed in the student's discipline file.  - d. refer the case to The Student Conduct Sub-Committee of The Student Affairs Shared Governance Committee to assign appropriate consequence and prepare a formal written report that will be placed in the student's discipline file. If the student accepts responsibility and agrees to the sanction or consequence, this shall conclude the case. If the student does not accept responsibility or does not agree with the consequence, the student has the right to appeal. The appeal process is outlined in the following pages.

During the above appeal process, a student who has received a sanction of a suspension of ten (10) or more days or expulsion for non-academic misconduct may choose to be represented at the student's expense by a licensed attorney or, if the student prefers, a non-attorney advocate who, in either case, may fully participate during the appeal process.

College students are entitled to an accessible procedure for expressing dissatisfaction and communication with the administration to reconcile any college-related problems. Arkansas State University-Mountain Home has procedures for addressing written student complaints and is proactive with respect to student concerns.

Students are encouraged to resolve college-related problems through the informal and formal grievance process. See the general steps below for resolving an issue. Please consult the ASU-Mountain Home Student Handbook for more details on filing formal academic and non-academic grievances.

In addition to the formal grievance procedures, any written complaint, submitted via the electronic Student Complaint form; will be accepted and acted upon as long as it contains the student's name, contact information, a general description of the grievance and expected outcome. The resolution of grievances can be conducted with students in person, through phone or online via ASU-Mountain Home email.

Note: The Student Complaint Form and process is not to bypass the formal grievance processes for academic and non-academic issues.

If the grievance is not resolved after exhausting ASUMH's grievance procedure, students may file a complaint with the Arkansas Department of Higher Education (ADHE). Students who wish to file a complaint should review the contact information listed below. These agencies usually require the student to exhaust the institution's internal complaint processes prior to filing a complaint or grievance.

The student grievance web form may be accessed at: <https://www.adhe.edu/students-parents/colleges-universities/student-grievance-form/>

ADHE is Arkansas' state portal agency for the National Council for State Authorization Reciprocity Agreements (NC-SARA) and is responsible for the final resolution of student complaints against Arkansas institutions. If a complaint is received from an ASUN student located outside of Arkansas, in accordance with the SARA complaint resolution process, ADHE will notify the SARA portal entity of the state in which the complaining student is located.
