Student Shout Out from Mrs. Lively!

"Fall Festival was a LONG night for our Band and Choir students, who were running two booths. James Brock took a one-hour break but still worked from 3:30-8:30 p.m. As we were tearing down, I made several trips back to the band room, and when I returned to the little gym, I found James sweeping the floor with the giant dust mop - without anyone asking him to do it.

I had lots of students who worked hard and helped work and clean up, and I appreciate every one of them, but seeing one of our starting basketball players, who just happens to also be a trombone player, step up and take the initiative to do an unglamorous job that needed to be done really stood out to me. James didn't wait to be asked; he saw what needed to be done and did it. That kind of initiative and willingness to serve others deserves a shout-out. Thank you, James!"
